

Feline Update Nurse CPD
Cracking the Code: Deciphering Feline
Behaviour

Wednesday 29th February 2012

PROGRAMME

- A Behavioural Approach to Feline Patients in Veterinary Practice
Dr Rachel Casey BVMS PhD DipECVBM-C Dip(AS)
CABC CCAB MRCVS

- The Role of Disease in Behaviour
- Inappropriate Urination: Behavioural Approaches
Anne Seawright BVSc MRCVS

- Inappropriate Urination: Medical approaches
Dr Natalie Finch BVSc PhD MRCVS

- Managing Stress Induced Behaviour in the Shelter
Nicky Trevorrow Behaviour Manger, Cats Protection National Cat Centre

- Altered Behaviour in the Geriatric Cat: Top
Tips for the Geriatric Nurse Clinic
Susanne Rudd Dip AVN Med RVN

- Feline Aggression
Christine Basse BSc MSc
And Beth Loftus BSc

Venue

Conference Room
Communal Building
School of Veterinary Sciences
Langford
Bristol
BS40 5DU

Kindly sponsored by

- Cost: £80
(VAT exempt)
Includes lunch, course notes and refreshments

Practice discount: book more than one place and get 10% off

Covering a wide range of topics with experts in the field based at Langford and Cats Protection National Cat Centre, this one day course aims to help veterinary nurses become fluent in feline behaviour. We aim to give you the tools to deal with day to day Problems and with even the most ferocious feline.

Behaviour topics are always very popular with nurses, please book well in advance to ensure a place.

- Please pay and book in advance

•by cheque (payable to 'University of Bristol') complete with your full details to:
Langford Continuing Education Unit,
School of Veterinary Sciences, Langford House, Langford, Bristol BS40 5DU

- by phone using debit/credit card
0117 9289502

• Email:
Langford-CE@bristol.ac.uk