

Feline Update CPD for Veterinary Surgeons
Cardiopulmonary Medicine for the Feline Patient
Wednesday 15th February 2012

PROGRAMME

- Management of Congestive Heart Failure
- Interactive Cardiac Cases
- Echocardiography for the General Practitioner
Dr. Paul Wotton BVSc PhD DVC MRCVS

- Management of Lower Airway Disease
Paul Higgs MA VetMB CertSAM MRCVS

- Top tips: Bronchoalveolar Lavage (BAL)
Catherine Bovens DVM MRCVS and Marta Costa DVM MSc MRCVS

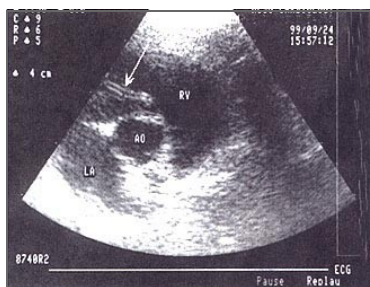

- Interpreting lung patterns (interactive session)
Nathaniel Harran DVM MRCVS

- Aortic Thromboembolism
Domingo Casamian Sorrosal DVM CertSAM

Venue

Conference Room
Communal Building
School of Veterinary Sciences
Langford
Bristol

Kindly sponsored by

Managing the feline patient with cardiopulmonary disease can be daunting. This one day course will provide the practical information you need to diagnose, manage and treat these cases.

Covering a wide range of cardiology and respiratory topics with Langford and external speakers.

- Please pay and book in advance

• by cheque (payable to 'University of Bristol') complete with your full details to: Langford Continuing Education Unit, School of Veterinary Sciences, Langford House, Langford, Bristol BS40 5DU

- Cost: £175 (VAT exempt)
Includes lunch, course notes and refreshments

Practice discount: book more than one place and get 10% off

- by phone using credit/debit card
0117 9289502

• Email:
Langford-CE@bristol.ac.uk