

Langford
VETERINARY SERVICES

Farm Animal Practice Farming Essentials
– Continuing education for progressive farmers

Keeping Sheep & Goats

Evening of Wednesday 4th and Wednesday 11th August 2010
Practical session on the Afternoon of Wednesday 18th August 2010

LVS Farm Animal Practice, University of Bristol, Langford, Somerset

Keeping sheep and goats is a rewarding experience, but it can be surprising how much there is to learn before you start. This course provides a comprehensive introduction to keeping sheep and goats for new and potential owners.

Two evening sessions covering:

- Why should you keep sheep and goats?
- How can you maintain excellent husbandry and welfare standards?
- How can you make sure they are fed appropriately?
- What common complaints should you look out for and how can you help?
- How can you prevent these common conditions?
- How do you know when to call a vet?

Afternoon practical workshop

- Safe and effective handling
- How to carry out a regular health check
- How to worm and inject safely

£85 per person for the full course

(including VAT)

Refreshments will be provided. Beginners are very welcome.

Call us on 01934 852650

to book your place or find out more.

Langford Veterinary Services farm animal practice is committed to providing high quality, practical training for commercial farmers and small holders alike. Call the practice or visit our website to find out about the range of training courses on offer in 2010.

Farm Animal Practice, Langford House, Langford, Bristol BS40 5DU. Tel: 01934 852 650.

www.langfordvets.co.uk/farm_animal_practice.htm | farmpractice@langfordvets.co.uk